Community Liaison Officer Program (CLO Program)

Mental Health and Suicide Prevention

Proud of Our Culture
Aware of Our Health

What is the CLO Program?

The CLO Program works with local community groups to raise awareness surrounding mental health and suicide prevention in the aboriginal community.

How does the CLO deliver their program?

direct community members to service providers and professionals

providing information

conducting workshops

holding yarning sessions

We do not deliver clinical services as we are purely a grassroots information service.

Who can access the CLO Program?

The CLO program is open to all Aboriginal community members. Community members who need information or direction to services regarding Mental health personally, for family or for a friend can access the program. There is no restriction to who can contact us and seek information.

Everyone is welcome

Where does the CLO Program operate?

The CLO program is Metropolitan wide, however, Moorditj Koort is responsible for the Southern sector of the metropolitan area. It takes in the Fremantle, Kwinana and Rockingham regions.
